Biographical Notes

Marlin Kinman, son of Major Guy M. Kinman, had an ambition to become a stage designer for the Metropolitan Opera. Merlina Kinman, presumably Marlin's sister, was active in music at Indiana University-Bloomington. This is a collection of memorabilia relating to opera singers and productions at the Metropolitan Opera, Indiana University Bloomington, and elsewhere.

At the end of his life, Marlin Kinman resided at 2113 Hollywood Place, South Bend. The items were presented to the Indiana University South Bend Archives by Lester Wiseman on behalf of the Kinman estate on September 3, 1994.

Collection Scope and Content Note

This collection is arranged into four distinct folders within one Hollinger box, which includes correspondence, programs, photographs, and newspaper clippings and articles. In addition, there is a large framed fragment of the curtain of the Metropolitan Opera dating from 1905. This curtain fragment was presented to Indiana University Bloomington president Herman B. Wells in 1942. This may or may not be the same framed fragment owned by Kinman.

Correspondence included in the collection reveals that Marlin's father was stationed at Fort Sam in Houston, Texas during the 1940's, and that the Major wrote to ask advice of theater professionals in steering his son to a profession in the theater. There are several letters that evidence responses to fan mail that Marlin wrote to opera stars of his time, as well as letters offering suggestions to the administrations of opera companies. Also included is a love letter to Merlina as well as letters to Major Kinman.

1 Correspondence, 1938 – 1990, no date.

Correspondents include Rudolph Bing, Herbert Graf, Frieda Hempel, Marjorie Lawrence, Guy Malcolm, Danny Newman, Francis Robinson, Lawrence Tibbett, and others. Most letters are addressed to Marlin Kinman, but a few are addressed to his father and Merlina. Also includes a descriptive letter (no date) concerning the fragment of the Metropolitan Opera curtain (on Indiana University Bloomington stationary).

Programs, 1935 – 1955, no date.

Includes various programs from Indiana University's Auditorium Series held in Indianapolis. Included are two programs that include Marian Anderson's appearance in the IU Series, and they are autographed by the famous contralto.

In addition, there are programs from Indianapolis' English Theatre, Indiana University Bloomington's Auditorium, theaters in New York City (Radio City Music Hall, Metropolitan Opera, Century Opera House), and San Antonio's Municipal Auditorium.

Photographs, circa 1920's to 1940's.

Signed photographs from various opera stars contemporaneous to Marlin Kinman, include Frances Alda, Stella Andrews, Richard Crooks, Suzanne Fisher, Jacque Geroud, Frieda Hempel, Jan Kiepura, Helen Jepson, Mary Jordan Marjorie Lawrence, --- Martinelli, Lauritz Melchior, Grace Moore, Ezio Pinza, Sydney Rayner, Gladys Swarthout, Lawrence Tibbett and others.

Articles and Clippings, 1941 – 1976.

Items include reviews of individual operatic performances as well as articles on performers, including obituaries.
