| 1/19                   | I.F. Stone's Bi-Weekly ; March 8, 1971   | Copy of the newsletter I. F. Stone's Bi-Weekly from March 8, 1971. Stone was a journalist whose left-leaning views cost him work in the mainstream media. The Bi-Weekly was his way of bypassing that media and writing about issues like racial discrimination, campaigns against McCarthyism, and the war in Vietnam.                                                   | CHRC.JAMES.019   |               |

| 1/24                   | Photographs, UAW Local No. 5 Event; circa 1980s | Photos from an unknown UAW Local 5 (South Bend, IN) event, unknown date. Many of the photos have captions written in pen on the back, using first names only.                                                                                                                                                                                                             | CHRC.JAMES.024   |               |
| 1/25                   | Rally Slides; circa 1980s                       | Color photograph slides from a rally/event in Washington, D.C. (the Capitol building is seen in one slide). One slide shows people holding a sign for the United Auto Workers (UAW). There is no indication what the exact event is. From the date inked on the slides, they were processed in October 1981. Again, no indication if the event also took place that date. | CHRC.JAMES.025   |               |
| 1/26                   | Photograph, Local 2107 Unit 3; circa 1980s      | Photograph in front of a garden at an unknown location. David James is included in the photo. The back is signed by a number of individuals, some with messages for David.                                                                                                                                                                                                | CHRC.JAMES.026   |               |
