1/66 DIGITAL	Bill 30-10; 2010	South Bend Common Council Bill 30-10 was another attempt to add LGBTQ language to the city's human rights ordinance. This bill was limited to protecting discrimination in employment, with some exceptions for challenges against small businesses and religious institutions. Issues of housing and public accommodations were not included. The bill was eventually defeated. While members of South Bend Equality advocated strongly for the bill, the limited scope of the bill was not their end goal. Folder includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Document entitled, "Helpful information for people in support of the employment fairness proposal," minutes of the July 26, 2010 meeting where the bill was had a public hearing, and a copy of the agenda for another public hearing at the October 25, 2010 Common Council meeting. – Memo from Council Attorney Kathleen Cekanski-Farrand to Council Members Oliver Davis, Ann Puzzello, and Al "Buddy" Kirsits dated July 20, 2010, in which Ms. Cekanski-Ferrand identifies questions and concerns with wording in the bill. A response by Aladean DeRose, city attorney who had represented the Human Rights Commission, is also included. – Draft of a letter written to "Karen" (presumably Council Member Karen White) encouraging her to vote in favor of the bill. – Printout of a Power Point presentation (presumably prepared by South Bend Equality, although there is no clear 	Catherine Pittman	CRHC.LGBTQ.066
