3/1	Scrapbook 1; circa 1992 to 2001	Scrapbook containing photographs and articles about the former Shepherd's Center of South Bend (later Friendship Group). From their website (shepherdscenters.org), they are "a network of interfaith community-based organizations that provide meaning and purpose for adults throughout their mature years. Shepherd's Centers all have a commonly understood mission to empower older adults to use their wisdom and skills for the good of their communities." A South Bend chapter established in 1992 and based out of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, the group consisted of about thirty senior citizens who engaged in activities meant to promote cross-racial and cross-faith empowerment for older adults. Beginning in 2010, the group stopped paying dues to the national Shepherd's Center and decided to continue under their own name, the Friendship Group.	Sharon Fisko	CRHC.SBCRH.067

4/2	Racial Incident Report; July 4, 1967	Photocopy of a police report detailing an incident outside an unnamed youth center at 1231 West Washington. An officer received complaints from "citizens in the area" who said there were, "youths fighting and causing trouble in the streets" after a dance let out at the center. The officer said that some of the youths threw rocks and bottles at him. Though some additional officers were called and the center announced that "dog's [sic] were coming," the incident does not appear to have escalated much beyond that. However, the report says that center leaders were notified and felt, "they could handle the trouble with out the police being called in," and the author of the report felt that, "None of the adults in the area can understand why we the police let the youths run over us and not take more action than we do." About three weeks later, riots would erupt over Washington and Western streets.	Unknown (found in former DW CRHC office)	CRHC.SBCRH.072	MM
