Title: IU South Bend Interim Chancellor Lamon Collection

Extent: 0.4 cubic feet

Abstract:

Collection of Indiana University South Bend ex-Interim Chancellor Lester Lamon materials. Dates range from 1980 to 2000. This collection gives a view into the academic career of Dr. Lester Lamon of Indiana University South Bend. The materials detail Lamon's participation in key aspects in the development of the IU South Bend campus, including the negotiations for and purchase of the riverfront property directly opposite the main portion of the campus as well as the development of a stand-alone library. Dr. Lamon served the IU South Bend campus as professor of History from 1971 (upon receiving his doctorate from the University of North Carolina that same year) to his retirement in 2006. Dr. Lamon served in IU South Bend's History Department as a professor (he was named an associate professor in 1975 and a full professor in 1982. He served the campus in other important capacities over the years, including the Curriculum Coordinator from 1979 to 1981, Dean of the Division of Arts and Sciences from 1981 to 1989, Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs from 1989 to 1995, and Interim Chancellor from 1995 to 1997.

Scope and Content Note:

Material is arranged by subject, and within subject, by date. Not all of the inclusive materials are specifically from the period of time that Dr. Lamon served as the Interim Chancellor. Instead, they are representative of a majority of Lamon's tenure at IU South Bend. The materials include a biography of Dr. Lamon.
