Title: IU South Bend: Health and Wellness Center Collection

Abstract:

This collection chronicles Indiana University South Bend's Health and Wellness Center. The Indiana University South Bend Health and Wellness Center is a primary care facility committed to providing high quality health care and health and wellness education to the diverse IU South Bend campus community. The stated goal of the Health and Wellness Center is to promote healthy students and a healthy environment that supports optimum learning and results in retention of students. The Health and Wellness Center also attempts to promote healthy lifestyles for the IU South Bend community in all domains of physical, mental environmental and spiritual health as well as provide a cost effective and convenient health care to the students of IU South Bend. The Health and Wellness Center also provides support to Nursing faculty and staff in the areas of teaching, learning and research. Lastly, it provides opportunities in application of acquired knowledge for undergraduate and graduate students in Nursing and other related majors.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection is organized chronologically. The collection's holdings begin in 2007 and includes press releases about the Center's HIV testing, Influenza Vaccinations, free pap smears and weight loss counseling and further related materials.
